SafeStake platforms (as accessed through the Website) enable users to access and use the Protocol (as defined below).

We do not give any warranties, whether express or implied, as to the suitability or usability of the protocol, our Services, the Website, its software or any of its content. We will not be liable for any loss, whether such loss is direct, indirect, special or consequential, suffered by you or any party as a result of the use of the Beta protocol, its content and functionalities.

By accessing, using or clicking on our website (and all related subdomains) or its mobile applications (“Website”) or accessing, using or attempting to use the Services, you agree that you have read, understood, and to be bound by these Terms and that you comply with the requirements listed herein. Please note that blockchain networks, even if SafeStake publishes domain names or other records to them, are controlled by third parties (who may be distributed networks of independent computers), and are therefore not included in the definition of the “Website”.
